TBA Credit Union Welcomes Dan Galbraith as New Commercial Relationship Specialist

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. – TBA Credit Union is pleased to announce Dan Galbraith as the new Commercial Relationship Specialist. With a 20-year career in the banking industry, Galbraith brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to his new role, where he will be responsible for fostering and expanding business relationships within the community. Galbraith replaces retiring Mark Guimond, who held this position for the last five years.

"Dan's impressive track record in banking and his commitment to community development make him an invaluable asset to our team," said Chris Milliron, Chief Lending Officer. "His expertise will be instrumental in advancing our mission to provide personalized financial solutions that meet the evolving needs of our business members."

In his new role, Dan will be crucial in strengthening relationships with business members, understanding their needs, and delivering tailored financial solutions that support their growth and success.

"I am honored to be a part of a community-centric institution like TBA Credit Union. I look forward to leveraging my experience to build strong, lasting relationships with our business members and contribute to our community's economic vitality," said Galbraith.

A $340 million (assets) credit union, TBA Credit Union provides financial services to over 19,000 members across the State of Michigan. In addition to two branches and a call center located in Traverse City, TBA Credit Union members have access to over 30,000 surcharge-free ATMs nationwide through the CO-OP Network and over 250 Xtend Shared Branching locations.
