FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Meghan Chenoweth Joins TBACU Executive Team

Traverse City, MI – TBA Credit Union (TBACU) promoted Meghan Chenoweth from Service Center Manager to Chief Services Officer. The Chief Services Officer is a new position for the credit union, which will oversee service areas including consumer lending, local Service Center, card services, and member service activity.

“Meghan is a valued leader at the credit union and her experience, along with her strategic thinking, will be a welcome addition to our Executive Team. Her appointment to this new position strengthens TBACU for our continued growth and commitment to living out our mission” said Karen Browne, President and CEO of TBA Credit Union.

Chenoweth first joined the TBACU team in 2012, and has worked across departments, gaining knowledge of lending, in-direct lending, the Service Center, and the Student-Run Credit Union Program.

“This new position is an exciting step for me at the credit union. I look forward to continuing to serve our members and improve their service experiences” said Meghan Chenoweth.

A $300 million (assets) credit union, TBA Credit Union provides financial services to over 20,000 members across the State of Michigan. In addition to two branches and a call center located in Traverse City, TBA Credit Union members have access to over 30,000 surcharge-free ATMs nationwide through the CO-OP Network and over 250 Xtend Shared Branching locations.
