TBA Credit Union Donates $5,150 to The Father Fred Foundation Through You Join. We Give. Campaign

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. – This July, TBA Credit Union (TBACU) donated $5,150 to The Father Fred Foundation through their membership initiative, You Join. We Give.

During April, May, and June 2026, TBACU pledged to donate every new membership $10 membership fee to The Father Fred Foundation. Thanks to the support of new members, the campaign generated a donation that will help the organization continue providing essential resources to local individuals and families in need, including food assistance, clothing, household essentials, personal care items, and financial support.

"We are so grateful for TBA Credit Union's support and thank them for helping us advance our mission of meeting essential needs in our community," said Candice Hamel, Executive Director at The Father Fred Foundation. "As demand continues to outpace donations, this generous contribution will make an immediate and meaningful impact. We are proud to call TBA Credit Union a valued partner."

"The You Join. We Give. campaign is a simple but powerful way for our members to make a difference from day one," said Karen Browne, President and CEO of TBA Credit Union. "Every new membership helped provide support for neighbors facing challenges, and we're grateful for the opportunity to partner with The Father Fred Foundation to strengthen our community together."

The You Join, We Give campaign continues throughout the year with a new nonprofit partner each quarter. Learn more at tbacu.com/you-join-we-give.
